MEDICINAL.

"He Won't Die

Of consumption" is a remark often made of a fleshy man. The remark expresses the popular recognition of the fact that the sign of consumption is emaciation, loss of flesh. On the other hand, a gain in flesh is a sure sign that wasting diseases are being cured.

Emaciated peo-

Emaciated people with obstinate disease is being surely cured.

Mr. Will H. Whitmire, of Arkton. Rocking-ham Co. Va., writes: "Our son contracted a deep cold about the first of July, 1892, and had a terrible cough. We called a doctor and he pronounced it irritation of the bronchial tubes, with asthmatic trouble, and he informed me that my son was liable to die at any time. He told me that if we could keep the bronchial tubes open, he might cure him; but after treating him several weeks and my son growing worse all the time, I concluded to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Piessant Pellets.' I had seen several almost miraculous cures brought about by the use of these medicines, and of course I had wonderful faith in them. He used three bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' at home and one vial of the 'Pellets,' and was then well enough to go to West Virginia, taking a supply with him. I am just in receipt of a letter from him from which I quote: 'I am usel and hardy one getting tery fleshy.'" Loste said he d-ank a bottle of tincture of iodine and one of laudanam. Rushing into the room he told the woman he was about to die and, seizing a razor, cut her throat from ear to ear.

The poor creature was found on the floor in a pool of blood. On her breast was pinned her parents' address.

The old people were filled with horror. Their daughter had never absented herself in the evening, and the existence of Loste was unsuspected.

Abdullah, the so-called Mad Mullah, in Somaliland, Africa, has su Jered a severe defeat. Colonel Swayne, British commissioner in the Somaliland protectorate, commander of the expedition, in an official message, issued by the British foreign office last night, says that as a result of the fighting at Erego, between the British and Italian frontiers, the Somali levies were much shaken. The Mullah is bringing re-enforcements from all directions. Colonel Swame is much hampered by the necessity of transporting all the water used by the expedition and ransporting his wounded. He is retiring on his base at Bohotle, 210 miles across the desert from Berdera. He asks urgently for re-enforcements. "I have used three boxes of the Tablets and now think I am well." These was started yesterday afternoon by a negro man and woman shoving a white woman from a trestle between Littleton and Flat Top The white woman reported the matter to her friends, and the same of the ported the matter to her friends, and five of them went after the negroes. The latter had gathered friends, and there was a pitched battle. Two white men fell at the first volley and then the others were forced to retire, their ammunition being exhausted. Assistance was sent to both sides, and there is great consternation. A telegram was sent to the sheriff asking that ten heavily armed men be sent at once. They started at 10:30 o'clock last night. Forty armed white men were at the station at Littleton, waiting for the agricult of the coses when men were at the station at Littleton, waiting for the arrival of the posse, when the search for the negroes will be taken up. A number of negroes will be taken up. A number of negroes broke into a magazine and got a supply of ammunition, but they were captured, and a report says they are threatened with death. The operator at Littleton stated that unless the present that the control of the contr less the posse gets to the place before this morning there is going to be a terri-fic fight between the races. James Thompson is dying. A white man, who went to work Saturday at the Sloss Shefwent to work Saturday at the Sloss Sactifield Company's mines is dead, having been shot almost to pieces. Another white man is missing. None of the injured negroes have been found. The women at Littleton are paule stricken. M. Ruben & Sons'
